

Alaska Wildlife and Adventure Cruises

Ask anyone who has visited Alaska, and the first response is wistful faraway look and then a smile. Alaska is that magical, that beautiful, that special. Then this person will begin to relate all of the delightful, exciting, and astonishing sights of this very exceptional 49th state. Captain Kirk got it wrong when he went in search of "The Last Frontier". Alaska is unique in that it has the tallest mountain peak in No. America, Mt. McKinley, 3 million lakes, glaciers, rain forests, tidal pools, volcanoes, and some of the most charming and history laden towns you will ever see. This is state is rugged and serene in the same instant.

The best way to see Alaska is on a chartered small ship cruise. These Alaskan tours combine the ultimate in wildlife adventure, and sightseeing tours at a leisurely pace, allowing you to get to know Alaska and all it has to offer up close and personal. This is wilderness cruising at its best. Experience the abundant wildlife of the natural preserves and the inland passage while enjoying the comfort of a small yacht complete with a Coast Guard licensed Captain and naturalist, a chef, his assistant, and a mate. This harmonious team will tend to your every need while guiding you to the wonders never seen on a large impersonal cruise ship.

When you elect to book an Alaskan yacht charter cruise, like the alaska cruises offered by All Aboard Yacht Charters, be assured you will experience the ultimate wildlife tour. You will see whales, bears, glaciers, and sea lions. On fishing excursions, use Boston Whalers, kayaks, and rowing skiffs as you fish for salmon, halibut, and crab while traveling into one of the most beautiful wildlife areas in the world. Enjoy ample time to relax while they open the door to adventure. On board discover all the amenities to make your excursion enjoyable, including a gourmet chef. This is a totally different happening than you could ever get from a sterile, formal, over scheduled cruise line. For those select travelers who want to actually experience this land of grandeur and enchantment, this cruise is for you.

The professionals running All Aboard Yacht Charters are the first eco tour operators in S.E. Alaska. They take pride in their eco friendly approach to touring and keep the itinerary flexible to allow for serendipitous adventure. They meet clients but say goodbye to friends.
